13 vs. Plaintiff,
14 SCOTT J. HUNT, an individual,
15 Defendant.

CASE NO. 11-CV-1617-H (POR)

ORDER GRANTING EX PARTE
APPLICATION FOR IMMEDIATE REGISTRATION
OF AMENDED JUDGMENT

16 In this trademark infringement action, the Court granted Plaintiff's motion for default
17 judgment and permanent injunction on November 14, 2011, and awarded Plaintiff its 18 reasonable attorney's fees in the amount of $7,059 plus costs in the amount of $577.75 for the 19 total amount of $7,636.75. (Doc. No. 12.) On November 15, 2011, the Clerk issued a default 20 judgment. (Doc. No. 13.) On December 12, 2011, Plaintiff filed an ex parte application to 21 amend the judgment to include the amount of attorney's fees and costs. (Doc. No. 15.) On 22 December 20, 2011, the Court issued an amended judgment. (Doc. No. 16.)

23 On December 21, 2011, Plaintiff filed an ex parte application for immediate registration
24 of amended judgment. (Doc. No. 17.) Plaintiff represents that Plaintiff is unable to register
25 the judgment in Colorado for 30 days pending the appeal time following the entry of the 26 amended judgment unless the Court orders immediate registration of the amended judgment
27 under 28 U.S.C. § 1963. (Id. at 2.)

28 Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 62(a), a judgment of a United States District

1 Court becomes final and enforceable ten days after judgment is entered. Fed. R. Civ. P. 62(a);
 2 Columbia Pictures Television, Inc. v. Krypton Broad. of Birmingham, Inc., 259 F.3d 1186,
 3 1197 (9th Cir. 2001). At that time, a prevailing plaintiff is entitled to execute upon a judgment.
 4 Id. Pending appeal, however, the judgment is only enforceable in the district in which it was
 5 rendered, unless the judgment is “registered” in another district by court order. 28 U.S.C. §
 6 1963. The registration process is set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1963, which provides in relevant 7 part:

8 A judgment in an action for the recovery of money or property entered in any 9 ... district court ... may be registered by filing a certified copy of the judgment
 10 in any other district ... when the judgment has become final by appeal or 11 expiration of the time for appeal or when ordered by the court that entered the judgment for good cause shown. ... A judgment so registered shall have the same effect as a judgment of the district court of the district where registered and may be enforced in like manner.

12 28 U.S.C. § 1963. Under section 1963, a judgment may be registered in another district when 13 ordered by the court for good cause, even before the time for appeal expires. “Good cause”
 14 is satisfied where it is shown that the party against whom judgment was entered has assets in 15 some other district and insufficient assets in the rendering district to satisfy the judgment.
 16 Columbia Pictures Television, Inc., 259 F.3d at 1197-98.

17 Here, Plaintiff’s application for registration of judgment alleges that a third party in 18 Denver, Colorado, owes $14,000 to Defendant Scott Hunt, the judgment debtor. The Court 19 concludes that good cause exists to allow immediate registration of the judgment.
 20 Accordingly, the Court grants Plaintiff’s ex parte application for immediate registration of 21 amended judgment. Plaintiff must take all the necessary steps to effectuate the registration.
